Health Nugget

Chapter XV. - Resistance Against Disease-General Statements. 297. The object of the health reform and the Health Institute is not . . . to quiet the pains of today. No, indeed! Its great object is to teach the people how to live so as to give nature a chance to remove and resist disease.--T., V. I, p. 643. {Healthful Living, p. 68.1}

From the Pen of Inspiration

The season of distress before God's people will call for a faith that will not falter. His children must make it manifest that He is the only object of their worship, and that no consideration, not even that of life itself, can induce them to make the least concession to false worship.

At that time the gold will be separated from the dross. Many a star that we have admired for its brilliance will then go out in darkness. Those who have assumed the ornaments of the sanctuary, but are not clothed with Christ's righteousness, will then appear in the shame of their own nakedness. (Maranatha, p. 196.)
